Music

GREAT FOR ROCK

Due to the erratic lives of L.A. musicians and the capricious personalities of booking agents, all of the following bookings are subject to change for no apparent reason.

ALL AMERICAN TAVERN, 1600 N. Argyle Ave., Hlywd. Formerly the Cathay de Grande. Once the premiere punk venue in Hollywood, this club has taken on a new, more adventurous booking policy, featuring country, folk, jazz, and yes, some punk too. The bands play upstairs now, and it's not as easy to pass out undetected, so watch it. Over 21. Call (213) 461-4076.

Fri., Feb. 15 – Burning Shirts.
Sat., Feb. 16 – Unstoppables, Honcho Wonko (featuring top students from the American Music Institute).
Sun., Feb. 17 – Exene Cervenka's "Room to Think." DJ Richard Meltzer, Rob Black Salsa Quartet, readings and films. 8 p.m., $3.
Mon., Feb. 18 – Carlos Guitarlos Dance Band.
Tues., Feb. 19 – El Duce's Cold Seat.
Wed., Feb. 20 – It's the Bob (Forrest) and Keith (Morris) Jam Night.
Thurs., Feb. 21 – Levi Dexter's Psychobilly Night.

AL'S BAR, 305 S. Hewitt St., dwntwn. The famous downtown bastion for bohemian barflies is again offering varied entertainment. Located in the midst of the burgeoning loft neighborhood, this comfortable hangout would make Edward Hopper or Charles Bukowski proud and features one of the best jukeboxes in the city, with selections running the gamut from Hank Williams to Echo & the Bunnymen. During evening hours the American Gallery, showcasing contemporary art, mostly by downtown L.A. artists, is open. Call (213) 687-3668.

Fri., Feb. 15 – Hard-but-dreamy droning from those anxious gloomsters, Kommunity FK.
